by the Empire City, on the 7th, with Havannah 105 to 106. Philadelphia on the 3rd inst.

bills of the very highest class. Stocks, which had to 15 per cent. Loans on call, 7 to 12 per cent. foreign rate of exchange declining.

Mathew and the temperance cause. On Tuesday, Sept. 30, says a New York paper, Deputy Marshal George B. Gates, of the Northern District, arrested, at a negro hut near Jamestown, in Chautauque county, an alleged fugitive slave, named Harrison, and brought him to Buffalothe next morning, via Dunkirk, under a strong guard and handcuffed to constables Harrison and Best, so as to make a rescue more difficult. The coloured population were a good deal excited, and followed the boat to the gaol. The claimant is a Dr. Par- yet been apprehended by that efficient body. party returned about six weeks ago for their wives, authorities and certain members of the committee. and were arrested, and then exposed the wherethey escaped into Canada. After a brief hearing the commissioner decided that he was a fugitive slave, follows: and that he would make out an order for his return. I rison was safely lodged in gaol. To prevent the his deputies immediately repaired to the rooms of the comescape or rescue of the prisoner he was handcuffed to mittee, having declined a posse of police offered to accomfrom the court-room he said, "I would rather die resistance being offered. Mr. Caperton advanced to the than return to slavery." Wednesday, October 1, and brought before United Whittaker and M'Kenzie, to accompany him, Colonel Hays States Commissioner Sabine for examination forth- to leave, Mr. Van Bokkelen laid his hand on the Sheriff' crowded, and a rescue successfully carried out. The negro was at once put once gave the alarm by ringing the bell of the California on his way to Canada, and the agent of the claimant | Engine-house. arrested for attempting to kidnap a citizen of the l were undergoing an examination. About dusk the in attendance with an excited crowd of citizens outside. crowd began to throw stones into the window of the police-office pretty freely, which caused the adjournment of the court till 8 o'clock the following morning. For a while after the adjournment, the crowd seemed to disperse; but at about 85 o'clock they began to break in the windows and doors, and thus made an entrance into the building, and carried off the negro. All sorts of weapons were used in the affray. Pistols were fired from both sides, but we cannot learn that they took effect on any one. Seve- the Monumental Engine Company commenced tolling in a resolutions requested to resignative account to the second tolling in a resolutions requested to resignative account to the second tolling in a resolution of the second tolling in a resolution ral persons were badly hurt from clubs and stones, yield of the precious metal is such as to reward the the roof, and in a moment the doors were burst open, a rush tember. Almost immediately a meeting of citizens or enterprise and industry of the miner.

but none seriously.

by fire, while lying at Chagres, on the 11th Septem- shots were fired to be de-Der. The passengers and crew were all saved : part | merely as signals. of the freight was lost. She had arrived there a few days previous, and had taken on board a few passengers to return, some of whom—such was the rapidity under the command of Captain Stoddard, and was a new ship. She had only made a voyage to Europe gaol. The excitement and uproar was terrific. As the mended to place all the prisoners under sentence in the great praise for his firmness, daring, and activity; who, previous to going to Chagres.

adjourned, causing great dissatisfaction.

margo, where the patriots attacked the Mexicans. as the sermon in the prison had been concluded, and re- taken to the place of execution, and likewise commanded The personal property of Captain Stoddard, including his The patriots came off victorious, having taken the sisted to the utmost the strong arm of the capturers; the "guards" to convey the prisoner Robinson to the prisoner Robin town by storm, with a loss on the side of the Mexi-cans of 60. The government troops were intrenched suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold. The crowd rushed suburban parts within the seand of the Vigilance bell, company with the officers to the scaffold.

had marched upon Granada, the seat of Senor Mon-lance chambers, and have each heavy double doors, opening Norton, and Conrad. mation as to the result had been received, and it was hoisting goods from the ground.

The Africa left New York at 12.20 p.m. on the 8th Stk., '47, 62 to 64; ditto, ditto Int. Stk., 372 to 38; Ind. being fastened inside, so as to resist the pressure from with tible. Interpretate a sold arrived at the bar last night at 9 o'clock, State 5s, 78 to 79; ditto 21s, 37 to 39; Alabama 5s, 90 to out. In the southern chamber a rope had been "recycla" At the moment the cord was cut, a cry was heard, "Now ness, the Baroness de Speth, the Count de Buol Schauenwould arrive the same evening; she also met the Hud. Riv. R.R. 664 to 68; Syrac and Utica R.R., 120 to Twelve minutes had elapsed since the alarm was sounded the station-house in the greatest excitement, and on all royal mail steamer Asia at 9.50 a.m. on the morning 123; New Jersey R.R., 118 to 1221; N. Y. and Harlem on the fire-bell, when the door of the northern chamber sides was heard the same thrilling cry, "Hang the rescal !!" of the 9th inst., about twenty hours sail from New R.R., 65 to 651; Philad. and Read. R.R., 531 to 531; ditto opened, a few members appeared without their coats, and A gentleman came forward upon the platform, and an-Bds. 70, 68 to 681; ditto Mort. Bds. 60, 761 to 771; N.Y. addressed a few words to the heaving, surging masses be- nonneed that Robinson was on the ground, and as soon as and Erie R.R. Bds., '68, 107 to 108; ditto '59, 95 to 96; low. The din of human voices that arose completely the bodies of Gibson and Thompson were cut down, would also the Prometheus, which arrived on the 4th, the supply of bills thus far has been sufficient. The lead-noise each moment grew greater. A member of the com- lic coincided with him. also the Prometheus, which arrived on the 4th, ing drawer has bought some 50,000 at 110 and is selling at mittee waved his hand, significant of assent to the proposition of the waiting performed his duty. This more bringing 465 passengers, and gold-dust of the value 1104. One house has sold 80,000%, and we understand a tion, and in a momentary lull we could catch the remark, efficiently and faithfully, retired from the scene, as did also the Slopes. of a million and a half of dollars. The City of Man- new drawer was in market, Messrs. Sherman, Duncan, and hurriedly and energetically made, "We have them-never the officers with whom he was connected. Too much praise chester screw steamer from this port arrived at Co; and sold 30,000% or 40,000%. This supply of bills, it fear—it is all right!" and a thundering shout of wild con- cannot be awarded this officer for the manner in which he younger members of the royal family took walking exercise. is thought, will prevent the export of any considerable gratulation announced that the people below were as fully has conducted himself in the responsible position in which Prince Albert, attended by Colonel Hon. C. Grey and The political news by this arrival is less important quantity of gold this week. Francs and all continental bent upon witnessing justice done as their representatives in he has been placed. He summoned early in the morning Colonel F. H. Seymour, left Windsor by a special train of the colonel for the c and several of the banks had been severely run upon: There is no marked change in the money market to day, end of a rope. Dexterously clinging to the clapboards on to conduct the prisoner to the Prison Brig, and having per- returned to the Castle at five minutes to two o'clock this. they had, however, stood well, and by the 6th it had but the demand continues active, and the supply unequal the outside, he managed to pass the rope through the block, formed his duty with reference to the other prisoners, he afternoon. The Count abated, and it was hoped the crisis had passed. The large amount of drafts and returned with the two ends to the floor. Both doors could do no more. Still, however, confidence was slow in returning, and demand from the usual sources and neutralised the effect of inside. money was almost impossible to obtain, except for the receipts for the moment. First-class paper goes at 19 foreseen and provided for.

800, were all performing in New York to crowded Earle and Co., Seaman and Muir, and William Burger and doors of both chambers were simultaneously jerked open, After many disconnected and incoherent remarks. Co. At Boston: Dexter, Harrington and Co., P. R. South- presenting to view each of the prisoners, half surrounded which he attempted to throw the blame of many of audiences, and each in her walk giving delight to wick and Co., J. S. Gould, John Earle, jun., and Co., and at each door by members of the committee. A terrific own acts on others, he concluded by exhorting the young the ears and hearts of our transatlantic friends. Miss David Pingree, of Salem. The latter had indorsed largely shout rent the air. The multitude tossed to and men present to beware of the company they keep, and Hayes is a great favourite, and has gained great for Dexter, Harrington and Co., and Messrs. Southwick and fro-above all, amid all, calmly but sternly stood also of the intoxicating cup, which had caused the ruin of praise, by giving a concert for the benefit of Father | Co. He has always been estimated as worth one and a half | the band of the Brothers of Vigilance, and in their so many. to two millions of dollars, and he will probably soon recover from his embarrassments.

LYNCHING IN CALIFORNIA.

THE AUTHORITIES AND THE LYNCHERS. (From the San Francisco Herald, Aug. 20.) A high degree of excitement has been raised in the cit this morning, by the report that the authorities made an entrance into the rooms of the Vigilance Committee before daylight, and rescued from its hands Whittaker and officers with their victim in great crowds from the MKenzie, two of the most notorious scoundrels that have sons, of Hardy county, Va. Harrison left there with The rescue took place under such singular circumstances seven other fugitives in January last; two of the as to raise a doubt in the minds of a large majority as to

The committee had scarcely adjourned last night, when their companions. This resulted in the report spread through the city that a resolution had Harrison's arrest. The officers had warrants for been adopted to execute the two men above named this three other fugitives who were in Jamestown, but at the Union Hotel and other public places. The circumstances known by common report are as

At 3 o'clock this morning, Governor McDougal and Mr after which he was ironed and taken to gaol. The Brenham, mayor, awaked the Sheriff at his residence, and court-house was crowded with excited citizens, who presented him with a writ, issued by Mr. Justice Norton, made a show of resistance, but, after some slight of Whittaker and M'Kenzie, and bring them into court to skirmishing within and without the court-room, Har- | be dealt with according to law. Colonel Hays and some The negro is a mulatto, and stragglers who wished to see the result. The Sheriff and When about being removed Mr. Caperton walked up stairs and entered the room, no room in which the prisoners were confined, and announced A fugitive slave was arrested at Syracuse on himself to be the deputy sheriff and called on the two men meantime guarding the door. When the party were about ! The bells of the different churches com-Ishoulder and attempted to push him from the doo tolling, and handbills were distributed but Colonel Hays told him he was there to do to congregate and his duty and he was obliged The commissioner's party were permitted to leave. Two of the members of the committee, suspecting treachery, had at the Was same time let themselves down from the windows, and at

This was a little before the break of day, and immedicounty. The slave was afterwards recaptured, and two military companies called out to guard him Hearing what had taken place several left in disgust. Amid two military companies called out to guard him. intense excitement the meeting organised and the circum Several white men were arrested for assisting the stunces were detailed. The person who had charge of the negro in his attempted flight. This being the county room was bitterly denounced; various propositions were fair day, a large concourse of people surrounded the made, each more violent than the other; but they adjourned police-office, where the negro and the white men till eight o'clock without taking any action. The be tolled at half-past seven, and at eight a large number was About half-past seven, a.m., some one, of course unauthorised by the committee, announced to the crowd assem-| bled around the rooms in Battery-street, that an immediate attack was about to be made upon the gaol, and the pri taken forcily from the oustody of the authorities.

This produced an instant scattering of the assemblage and a rush for the scene of the anticipated battle. PRISONERS TAKEN FROM GAOL. (From the Alta California, Aug. 25.) Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 2 o'clock, the bell of very rapid manner, and a cry of "Fire" was raised, which however was corrected in a few minutes by the statement particulars: again been the scene of a terrible tragedy, in the About a quarter past 2 o'clock the prisoners, as has been miners and strangers from the country, who had come in summary execution of criminals by the hands of the the custom for several Sundays past, were taken out of their to witness the execution of the three culprits, Thompson, cells for the purpose of listening to Divine service, which Gibson, and Robinson. Soon after 9 o'clock a rumour ran

The steam-ship Lafayette was entirely destroyed same moment seized and carried out. Two or three pistol appeared, and requested to know if he was to be excherated boats, and were rowed some distance from her, fearful

A carriage was outside, in which the prisoners were moved that a committee be appointed by the chair to report placed: it was driven, we understand, by one of the keepers resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The foll we dooked, and observed a man descending the side of the of a livery stable, and a pair of fire, dashing gray horses lowing gentlement composed the (committee :--- Messrst vessel by a rope; that is Captain Stoddard, 'we shouted, sprang at the word in the direction of Dupont-street. At Sackett, Milne, Stiles, Scranton, Fay, and Winans. The and so it was. He was the last man to leave the ship and this juncture the bell of the Monumental was rung in committee reported as follows:—"That the mayor is not l clothes on their backs. The Lafayette was quick, sharp strokes. The consternation in the streets can | required by law, and would not be justified, in relieving better be imagined than described. People ran in all direct the sheriff of any responsibility attaching to that officer.

country, which was in the most deplorable and abject heads of the victims during the time they were in the car- lace that, the prisoner Robinson should suffer the same Comstock and Mr. Hoyt, rushed through the flames to the condition. The Convention of the Governors of the pened, Whittaker and M'Kenzie were safe in the rooms the governor's proclamation. Sheriff, Ben M'Cullough was avoided, which would certainly have caused a great Officient States, called for the purpose of devising of the committee. Thirty-six members were engaged in the mounted a carty and commenced reading the doonsome means for the relief of the difficulties under the rescue of these men, and it is said that they have for ment, forwarded by Hon. John M Dougal, the crowd loss of life. The fire increased with such rapidity as which the people are now labouring, had met, and several days been watching an opportunity to recepture continually crying out, "Hang the rascal "....! He's the to preclude the possibility of saving the property bewithout taking any decisive action on the subject, them. Most of the party was composed of the worst of the lot! " longing to the ship. Nothing of any consequence was room guards on duty at the time the prisoners were taken &c. The Stark Guards at this time marched down saved, Strengous efforts were made by Mr. Hoyt and from the committee. It is said that Capt Lambert called K-street to 2nd, wheeled about and formed a square in front others to save the specie, but without success. They The revolution in Northern Mexico, thus far, has on his men to fire, and that pistols were presented with of the station-house. The sheriff, after reading the reprieve, proved entirely successful. It commenced at Ca- deadly aim on both sides. The prisoners were taken just ordered the two prisoners. Gibson and Thompson, to be were foiled in their attempts by the flames and smoke.

in a church, with artillery. The revolutionists are people came flocking, breathless and excited, to the scene of after, and in a few moments scarcely a handred persons officed; Mr. Hoyt, and the stewardess, saved commanded by Carabajal, who has also with him two execution. The streets presented a scene of furious, mad were about the station-house. The guards then brought only what they stood in. Mr. Bowditch had in charge companies of Texans. At the last accounts they disorder. Living masses surged down the byways, through out Robinson, and attempted to convey him to the prison 4,000 dols. Worth of freight, belonging to Palmer and Co. the thoroughfares, and over the planked roads, until the brige but were compelled on the corner of 2nd street, to Express, nothing of which was sayed. It is impossible for Avalos, who is at Maiamoras has only 300 troops. of the wayes upon shore. Every moment the crowd grew cart, and thus surrounded by the guards were us to tell, or even conjecture, in what way the fire original deliver, their prisoner to the people, who placed him in a prisoner to the people and people to the peopl He had made a requisition on the city for 2,000, but more intense, and the pulse of the excited populace best escorted to a grove near the place where the scaffold was nated. An attempt was made to get her upon the shoals at the city refused to raise a single man. The plan of higher. Montgomery-street poured its tide of thuman erected. Very few of that immense assemblage knew Navy Bay with the view of eaving her machinery. the revolutionists was a pronunciamento, which was masses into California street, and California emptied its that Robinson was at that early hour already in the hands steamboat Gorgona had her in tow, but she burned to the living contents, like a mighty river, upon the spot where the of the people. A committee, consisting of the following water's edge, and sank in fourteen or fifteen fathoms water, Widely circulated. Tampico and its vicinity is in prisoners had been taken by their captors. Here are the gentlemen, was appointed, and who were to take charge the hands of the insurgents. The people of Mata- Vigilance Committee Chambers—two large frame houses, of the execution of Robinson, after the legal authorities before arriving there. All succeeded in escaping from her, moras are quietly awaiting the arrival of the liberat- ranged side by side, of two-story construction, their gable had performed their duty. Mesers Beard, Screnton, excepting one man, James M Donald, who served in the ends" fronting Battery-street, in the block between Cali- Milne, G. Wheeler, Miller, Bayley, Olmstead, Rightmire, N. capacity of a coal passer. Great credit is due to Dr. P.

greater than on the other. There may be blood shed, air, and was borne up from the rooms of the committee far ou, and Thompson, whose real name, is M. Dermot, came fort of those who favour them with a call. We cannot but the property of those who favour them with a call. We cannot be borne up from the rooms of the committee far ou, and Thompson, whose real name, is M. Dermot, came fort of those who favour them with a call.

dates to the 2nd, and 350,000 dollars specie; and There has been an active business in Sterling to-day, but them up!" "Now and here!" ensued, and the tumult and deserved to die, and that he was happy to see that the pubthan the commercial. There had been almost a more plenty and heavy. Francs, 5.164 to 5.134; the chambers above. A few of the committee then dashed hundreds of citizens to assist him, but as might be extended by a special train of the commercial. There had been almost a Amsterdam, 41 to 414; Bremen, 774 to 78; Hamburg, 364 out the glass above the door of the southern chamber, and pected, scarcely a man could be found who would volunside at the council for the management of the Duchy of one of their number mounted into the opening, holding one teer his services. He therefore ordered the Stark Guards of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for the council for the management of the Duchy of the council for one of their number mounted into the opening, holding one teer his services. He therefore ordered the Stark Guards Cornwall, at the Duchy-office, Somerset House. The Prince

It was now within 15 minutes of 3 p.m., 17 minutes only the committee with their prisoner slowly and solemnly as. The Duchess of Gloucester arrived at two o'clock this having been spent in rescuing the prisoners from the gaol, cended the scaffold; and the Guards formed a hollow square afternoon from Richmond-park to visit her Majesty. The been very much depressed, were recovering, and the The features of the dry goods trade are without change conveying them to the rooms, and completing the prelimi- around it below. Jobbers continue active, with the near-by trade, comprising | naries of their execution. The great, dense, agitated crowd | Robinson appeared perfectly cool and collected, and, on o'clock dore Stevens, W. E. Stevens, and J. A. Hamilton, They themselves buy but sparingly from first hands, not the walls and filled the rigging and boats along the docks, appeared desirous of creating a sensation, and accordingly evening. at the Astor House, to commemorate their return | renewing their stocks, but only supplying immediate wants. | presented an awful and imposing spectacle of excited, im- | commenced by alleging the grossest and most unfounded | from England. Commodore Stevens, in his speech. Stocks have been considerably reduced, to the benefit of patient, and resolute mankind. Ten thousand faces were charges against men who stand high in this community, made warm and complimentary mention of the kindof the fourth—has passed without as a single dry goods committee chambers. The vast concourse was stilled almost slightest probability that they were privy to or knew anywelcome he had received here from all failure. The day of difficulty passed off well, because it was to the hush of death; but this was only for a few seconds. thing of. At all events, we do not feel ourselves justified, Two minutes only had passed after the ropes were drawn on such evidence as this, in proclaiming to the world that Miss Catherine Hayes, Mrs. Warner, Madame The important failures which have taken place since our in, and already the crowd showed symptoms of impatience. officers who have heretofore been deemed perfectly upright Anna Thillon, Miss Cushman, and Miss Laura Addi- last are Mesers. Suter, Symington and Robinson, John E. The first murmur had scarcely arisen, however, when the and honourable are no better than felons. pinioned and their feet secured. The rope was about their appropriate prayer on behalf of the prisoner, and Robinson necks, their coats having been removed, and they stood himself knelt down and invoked Heaven to have mercy on aghast and trembling in the brief second of lifetime allowed his soul, and to support his mother and sisters under the far out below them. Another second of time and they upon them. He then rose, and with the utmost self-posses> whispers, and some of the more thoughtless in shouts, Cemetery. the poor wretches had the instant before passed into time until he was 11 years old.

was cleanly dressed, and was much the best looking man human beings, and there must have been seven or eight the two. M'Kenzie exhibited a countenance, when thousand persons on the ground. brought up to the door, that few who looked upon it will ever forget. The spectators turned away from the bodies while swinging in the air, and the great crowd began to diserse, slowly, silently, solemnly. Numbers of men were continually arriving on the ground as the earliest comers took their departure. Over 15,000 people, probably, visited the lace of execution during the afternoon.

then, we understand, the coroner was admitted to hold his la were not broken, and the jury returned the following ver- gine; obtained water, ice, &c.; left on the 8th at 12 M. iberate consideration, have come to the conclusion, and acabout 3 o'clock, in front of the Vigilance Committee Room, L. GATE-E. GALLAGHER, coroner.

growing out of the reprieve, by Governor Mac Dougal, of the prisoners in the hands of the sheriff. Judge Sackett serted. We thought no person was on her decks.

multitude surged, now this way, now that, and finally hands of the proper officer. When ordered by the captain to leave the ship, replied, Advices from the city of Mexico state that the ca- drifted towards the gaol, a carriage might have been seen As the hour for the execution drew high, the crowd No, until you are ready to follow, captain." Also to the

brig. The former two were then placed in a waggon, with vessel lost all, or nearly all, his personal effects. Captain supply on the market is quite moderate. New York Stocks from the windows all along the line of the street in which cluded, Thompson received extreme unction at the hands of the have been more plenty in consequence of the winding-up of the crowd was gathered. Women were crushed between the catholic clergyman, and begged of the crowd to pray several country banks. We quote as follows:-U. S. 6s, '56, the restless, swaying bodies of the more rugged species of for his soul. The prisoner Gibson was an episcopalian. LIVERPOOL, SUNDAY. 1033 to 104; ditto '62, 109 to 110; ditto '67, 116 to 1161; animal life. A confused, busy hum of low voices pervaded. The cord was then adjusted upon their necks, and at 20 The royal mail steam-ship Africa, Captain Ryrie, ditto '68, Coupon, 122 to 123; N. Y. 6s, '54, 1012 to 1021; the air, and might have been heard blocks distant. Still minutes to 3 o'clock the sheriff cut the rope that held the

There had been two arrivals from California, viz., Hud. Riv. R.R. Bds., 101 to 102; Mich. Cent. R.R. Bds., drowned the speakers' words. It was understook that the be brought forward to meet his doom. Colonel Grant also capture of the prisoners was announced. Cries of " Hang addressed the crowd, and stated that the prisoner richly Castle, and performed the following selection:

hands the fainting, drooping, gasping criminals, their arms | Rev. Mr. Benton offered up an exceedingly fervent and

were tossed far out into space, and drawn like lightning up | sion and firmness adjusted his clothes, bared his neck, and ternity, and seemed to recognise acquaintances among. It was the most exciting day we have ever passed in the colonial-office ruler of your native land, and to your magnammous conhe populace, exhibiting very little reverence for the city of Sacramento. The unprecedented and peculiar cir, on Saturday. sacredness and solemnity of death, to say the least cumstances connected with the execution of the Board of Inland honoured could time allow you to pay the commercial capi-M'Kenzie was attired in grey pants and coarse shirts, and added to the high wrought curiosity of the Chancellor of the Ex- tal of Scotland a visit, in which event we pledge ourselves was hung from the beam in front of the morthern room of sembled to witness the demonstrations of the legal authori- | chequer on Saturday. Lord Seymour had also an interview to give a welcome commensurate with the sentiment of the committee. While being dragged to the fatal spot from ties on the one hand, and the greater and more potent on Saturday with the right hon. baronet. he further end of the room, he manifested an overwhelm- authority of the people on the other, was enough in itself to ing fright and terror. His face was pallid, his eyes up- excite the mind to its utmost tension. Business was enturned, his hair seemed to stand out from the scalp, and tirely suspended—the streets were deserted—the city was at | view with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, at his official man." every fibre of his flesh quivered and seemed to clutch exist. | the scaffold. Every house, shed, or elevation from which a residence in Downing street. ence. Whittaker was more apathetic and unmoved. He view of the scaffold could be obtained was crowded with | The Marquis of Lansdowne left town on Saturday for his

CHAGRES, SEPT. 1851.

We left New York August 28, on board the steam-The bodies, after hanging forty minutes, were taken ship Lafayette, bound for Chagres and Nicaragua, with 78 down, and it being found that life still remained in the passengers and 70 officers and crew. We were enjoying holiday entertainments will take place, and her Majesty time when you return to the land you love to find it no will return for the Christmas to Windsor, where the usual body of Whittaker, it was again suspended from the beam. what appeared to us evidently a pleasant passage, and no- will receive a succession of distinguished guests. Twenty minutes thereafter it was again out down, and thing occurred to mar it until the 31st, when one of the But two or three witnesses were examined at the firemen, named Burns, leaped overboard and was drowned. The physicians present decided that the necks On the 7th September put into Kingston to repair the en- Dr. Kidd as Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford. M. arrived at Chagres on the 11th, at 9, A. M., after a fine run. In accordance with the testimony, the jury, after de- All the passengers, excepting four, left immediately for Pacordingly render their verdict, that Samuel Whittaker and name. The Lafayette was to leave Chagres at 3, P. M., for Robert M'Kenzie came to their death by being hanged by San Juan; when within a few minutes of the hour for the neck, thereby producing strangulation, by the act of a leaving, and " all on board," Mr. Smith, the chief engi- Mayne, Esq., C.B. (Commissioner of Police), are promoted body of citizens styling themselves the Vigilance Committee meer, upon entering the oil-room, observed a barrel of lu- to be Knights Commanders of the Bath (civil service). of San Francisco, on the afternoon of Sunday, Aug. 24, at bricating oil on fire, and immediately gave the alarm. a Battery-street, near California-street, from the 2nd story Every effort was made to extinguish it, but in an instant the thereof. (Signed) Theo. Payne, Jas. Hagan, J. Sio- entire room was in a blaze, which soon communicated to Mr. Cubitt, and Mr. Fox, to be Knights Bachelors. eum. Ino. C. Whiswold, Wm. M. Modre, Jas. H. Win- the saloon, and in a few minutes there burst forth a volume of flame which was found impossible to subdue. EXECUTION BY THE PEOPLE IN SACRAMENTO The fire, being in the vicinity of the magazine, the cry of powder in the magazine," was raised. Consternation In Sacramento city also a similar excitement took place, and nismay were at once pictured on every countenance. Robinson, one of the highway robbers condemned with A great rush was immediately made for the boats, and in two others to be executed. The people took charge of the the haste Mr. Austin, of San Juan, and Mrs. Carter, the prisoner, and after the officers of the law had fulfilled their stewardess, were precipitated into the water, from which duties upon the two others, proceeded to execute him. however they were rescued without any serious injury. Governor Mac Dougal was burnt in effigy, and in public Mr. Comstock, the purser; Mr. J. W. Smith, second officer; Mr. G. R. Hoyt, of Berford and Co.'s Express, rushed The Sacramento Union of August 23 gives the following through the flames, entered the magazine, and came on that the prisoners, Whittaker and M'Kenzie, had been By daylight yesterday morning, teams, horsemen, and deck with the powder, to the great delight of those on The news from California is to the 6th September. taken out of the county gaol by some members of the Vigi- pedestrians were seen pouring into the city from every board, which, amid cheers was thrown overboard. The The cities of San Francisco and Sacramento have lance Committee. The manner of the rescue was as follows: direction, and at an early hour the city was crowded with crew and others then returned and gave battle to the progressive stages of which have already been recorded, was land the city was crowded with crew and others then returned and gave battle to the progressive stages of which have already been recorded, was land to the city was crowded with crew and others then returned and gave battle to the progressive stages of which have already been recorded, was land to the city was crowded with crew and others the city was crowded with crew and others then returned and gave battle to the progressive stages of which have already been recorded, was land to the city was crowded with crew and others the city was crowded with crew and contains a contain crew and cr fiery element; but, notwithstanding the almost superhuman exertions of Captain Stoddard, his officers and crew. The accounts from the mining districts con- was performed by the Rev. A. Williams. Soon after they through the city that a respite of Robinson's sentence had destruction was inevitable. The fire continued to rage munication between Calais and the South Foreland, the unue to be favourable; improvements are in success- were called out, the attention of Capt. Lambert, the keeper been received from the governor, and that the day of his with greater fury, the flames how extending the whole ful progress in various gold-bearing streams; and the of the gaol, was called to the gate by the sentry who was on execution was to be postponed until the 19th day of Sept length of her deck; and there being not the slightest made, and Capt. Lambert thrown upon the ground and ganised at the Orleans Hotel, of which Dr. Spalding was prospect of arresting their progress, the captain ordered between coast and coast; and it is therefore hoped that no Willcox, M.P. for Southampton, and one of the managing awarded to the officers of the vessel, who made every exer-

The Court.

The Countess de Neuilly, the Duke and Duchess de the Duchess of Kent, the lady in waiting to her royal high-Trio Bouffe, "Sous votre bannière" (Prophete). Meyerbeer. Walzer, "Frühlings Lieder" Beethoven Marche de la Caravane (Le Desert) F. David. Overture, "Czaar and Zimmermann" Finale Third Act "Der Freischutz" Ballet Music, "L'Enfant Prodigue"...... This morning the Queen and Prince Albert walked i

The Prince of Wales, the Princess Royal, and the The Count de Buol Schauenstein, Field Marshal the royal duchess took her departure at a quarter-past three of Glasgow, convened by their chief magistrate, beg leave that of New York State and the neighbouring counties of that covered the roots, and clung by dozens to the sides of being requested to address the crowd, came forward, and The Duchess of Kent, attended by her lady in waiting gratulate you on your escape from the toils and persecuner, and played the following pieces: Romance, Chour, et Couplets, } "L'Enfant Prodigue"... Auber and the Slopes this morning.

service this morning in the private chapel of the Castle. The Duchess of Kent also attended the service. The Hon. and Rev. G. Wellesley officiated. on Saturday to the ministers and officers of state.

same instant, the signal being given throughout the cham- the president severed the rope, and the criminal dropped. Hon. Henry Labouchere on Saturday, at the office of the conquest of desputic barbarism; and bers, and the members rushing back with the rope until the below the scaffold. The prisoner being a very powerful and Board of Trade. ulprits each had been dragged to the block, and hung muscular man, the fall did not kill him instantly, as in the land of the Lord Chancellor has appointed Il o'clock on Mon- danger, and your present is one of exile, the almost motionless by the neck. Then a few convulsive case of the others, but his frame was convulsed, and his day, the 3rd of November, at his lordship's residence in future is yours; and with civilisation and humanity throbs, and the names of McKenzie and Whittaker were limbs moved for some moments after. He breathed for five Eaton-square, for the reception of the Lord Mayor elect and in your favour, as has been well expressed in your but empty words—their tabernacles of flesh cold in "ob- moments, and then the body after hanging for twenty the authorities of the City of London, on which occasion the letter to the republicans of Marseilles." There are no minutes was delivered to the undertaker and deceptly in- noble and learned lord will signify her Majesty's approbation betacles to him who has the will.' That will is yours, we While they were hanging, the crowd below vented in terred with those of the City tion of the Lord Chancellor willon feel persuaded, to make itself known ere long as a power of the same day, at 12 o'clock, at his lordship's residence in | might in the councils of Europe and a beacon of hope to the Robinson was born in the city of New York, in the year Eaton-square, receive the judges, Queen's counsel, &c., it enslaved of all nations. While taking the present opportuappeared at the threshold from which 1819, on East Broadway, and lived in New York from that being the first day of Michaelmas Term.

I sent Bowood Park, Wilts: First and First And And Annal received on Saturday at the Colonial-office.

Appointments. Dr. Ogle is appointed to succeed | | Tromas, Beaumont, Alderman, is appointed Inspector of Schools in Trinidad.—Observer. town clerk of the said borough. Col. W. Reid, C.B. (Governor of Malta), and R.

a Senior Fellow of Trinity College Cambridge.

THE SUBMARINE TELEGRAPH.

DOVER, SATURDAY. Yesterday the great cable, for telegraphic communication between this country and the continent, the at length completed by carrying it up one mile out of the sea to Sangutte, on the Calais coast. Telegraphic comlatter about three miles from Dover, was practically, and Captain Mangles, one of the managing directors of the for the first time through a perfected sea cable, effected Royal West India Mail Steam packet Company, and Mr. The prisoners, Whittaker and M'Kenzie, were at the chairman and Dr. Bryerly secretary. Mayor Hardenbergh every person to leave the ship. They sprang to the hip. They sprang to the ship. They sprang to the hip. They sprang to the ship. They sprang graphic intercourse, when arrangements at present pending Company, are to attend the banquet. Captain Townsend. are completed. The portion of cable that has just been M.P. for Tamworth, has signified his intention to be present added on to the main length is one mile long, and if his health permits him. The banquet is expected to take was manufactured during the week as Wapping, in the place on Tuesday, the 28th inst. Accommodation will be same way as the entire cable, and was worked off the provided for 100 ladies in the banquetting hall to witness wire rope machine in about a day. It left the Thames the banquet and to hear the addresses of the distinguished abandon her to the flames. Too much praise cannot be on Tuesday, by the Red Rever steamer, and though persons who will be present. The Mayor, although suffering weighing only between seven and eight tons, it had to be from ill health, has resolved to close his honoured career as taken to Dover and Sandgate by water, as it could not be chief magistrate of Southampton, an office which he will conveniently coiled up into the compass of a railway truck, shortly have filled for two consecutive years, with a crownand sent by the South Eastern Railway, which would have ing act of hospitality. been the means of forwarding it faster. On arriving at the The American ambassador has expressed his intention to and much disaffection prevailed throughout the turing party and the prisoners. Pistols were held at the evidently a fixed determination in the ininds of the population in the ininds of the p Rover was joined by the Fearless, Capt. Bullock, R.N., has sent the following note to his worship the Mayor: who has remained upon the spot until the operation should | " 1, Bryanstone-square, Oct. 17, 1851.—Musurus Bey prebe completed. Here the end of the submerged cable was sents his compliments to the Mayor of Southampton, and hauled up by the workmen on board the steamer, and the begs to be excused from accepting the invitation of the muadditional mile "spliced" on to complete it, the "join" nicipal authorities of that town, which reached him this being secured by iron clamps screwed over it. The inner morning." cores of copper wires were braked together, and the over- An impression appears to prevail that all the refugees, lapping shands of gutta percha, bituminised yarn, and gal- about 60 in number, on board the Mississippi, will come to vanised from wire, securely interwoven. As calm a state of Southampton. There is not the slightest ground for such a high water as possible was selected by Captain Bul- belief. Kossuth, his wife and children, and one or two lock for the purpose, so as to prevent the pitch- personal attendants, will, it is tolerably certain, alone visit ing of the vessel from affecting so nice an operation. Southampton. The part of the cable where the foin occurs is thought. As soon as the Madrid is descried at Southampton, the to be as strong as any part where nothing of the kind Custom-house authorities at that port will communicate occurs; but it is curious that it should exist at this parti. with the Mayor, who will be conveyed out in the stream in cular place, where it will have to contend against the abra. the pratique boat, in order to communicate with the Hunsion of shingle on the beach and other casualties, and garian chieftain, previous to his approaching the place for which, in the experiment of last year, sawed asunder the disembarkation. The gutta percha cable on the rocks around Cape Gisney. The communication, is now perfect between coast and coast. Captain Bullock, who bo-operated throughout with his valuable nautical knowledge, left Calais to day with the here to introduce the Bloomer garb among our females, but Fearless for Portsmouth. It is not yet known, at what precise date the wires to Advices from Nicaragua state that General Munoz fornis and Pine streets. The lowerfloors of these buildings Smith, Bond, Barroll, M'Gilvey, Stiles, C. H. Smith, Jo-Gould of Chagres for his extreme kindness and attention to connect the cable at the South Foreland with the telegraph. are occupied as stores; the upper apartments are the Vigi- seph Grant, S. Bruce, Bisco, Freeman, Curtis, Fowler, the sufferers, by furnishing clothing, and, in fact, every office of the South Eastern Company here will be com- have seen several of them in the street, but invariably they thing necessary to our comfort. We also owe much to the pleted; but this would be only the work of a day or so, were very ugly, ill-formed, and without the least pretention tenegro's government, with a view to capture the upon Battery-street, above which project timbers and without the least pretention were going on at the grove, the citizens of Chagres for their kindless in furnishing boats as during the past week, the connecting wires for the purpose of final preparations for the unfortunate and execution of the uniformed, and without the least pretention.

The purpose of final preparations for the usual to grace of manner. I do not think there are a dozen to grace of manner. I do not think there are a dozen to grace of manner. I do not the uniformed and execution of the uniformed and execution of the uniformed and the unifor men, Gibson and Thompson, were progressing under the great obligations to the proprietors of the Irving House, pose have been manufactured. They consist of the usual Bloomers in this city. The beautiful style of dress now in noisting goods from the ground.

The afternoon was very windy, and the dust of the streets management of the shears at the scallold, which was built Mr. W. W. Williams and E. M. Govern, for the aftention copper wires enclosed in gutta perchayable latter, to protect fashion throws the innovation far into the shade." reported that the expedition had halted by the way the atternoon was very windy, and the distributed were passing Battery at the corner of O and 4th-sts. The catholic clergyman and and hospitality extended to us; and we cheerfully recom- it, being covered with spun yarn, it being covered with spu at Nicaragua. We see no reason to doubt his success street, and securing all the elevated places and positions for the officers, together with the prisoners, alone occupied the mend them to the favours of the officers, together with the prisoners, alone occupied the mend them to the favours of the officers, together with the prisoners and securing all the elevated places and positions for the officers, together with the prisoners of the officers greater than on the other. There may be blood shed, but victory will probably be with him. At Sun yet with a call yet victory will probably be with him. At Sun yet will not be a probably be with him. At Sun yet will not probably be with him. At in this enterprise, as the strength on his side is much overlooking the proceedings, an outery and huzza rent the scaffold. These wires, forming about a two-inch cord in mail from India, which brought despatches from Sydney, ble curious astronomical experiments, and it is considered that facilities for sidereal observation on all parts of the continent will be greatly increased by means of it. The WINDSOR, Oct. 18. South-Eastern Railway Company, with a view to the pro-The royal mail steam-snip Airica, Captain Cyrie, atto co, Coupon, 122 to 125; N. Y. 5½s, '60, '61, '65, 102 to 103; the crowd increased. Members of the Vigilance Committee and Princes de Joinville arrived motion of the object, have consented to carry a wire or from New York, arrived here this morning at half-from New York, arrived here the triat property of 102; the crowd increased. Members de Hernity the New York, arrived here the Costle, York, and York arrived here the Costle, York, and York arrived here the Costle, York, and York arrived here the Costle, York arri will also be connected with the Observatory at Paris,... unst., and and to wait upwards of four hours for where she had to wait upwards of four hours for where she had to wait upwards of four hours for water. The Humboldt was met by the Africa at 3 of the afternoon she left New York, and of the afternoon she left New York, and of the afternoon she left New York, and of the scene which followed was the most territory. It is abella Wenyss. The same evening: she also met the Hud Riv R R 661 to 60. Small respect to the committee. and simultaneous observations be made between the Astrocontinent, can also be easily obtained, and the most accurate records of comparative astronomy be recorded and preserved. Several hitherto undreamt of, because, hitherto Her Majesty's private band afterwards attended in the impracticable diversions, are in contemplation, by means of the submerged cable. One is the firing off guns simultaneously from the Invalides, the heights of Dover, and the Tower of London; and another, the practical playing of a game of chess, through the wires, between the chess-players of London and Paris.

KOSSUTH.

The Mayor of Southampton has received the following addresses for presentation to Kossuth, on his landing

46 TO LOUIS KOSSUTH, LATE GOVERNOR OF HUNGARY. Address of the citizens of Glasgow in public meeting "Honoured Sir,--We, a public meeting of the citizens

o address you on your arrival in this country, and to con-

A great entertainment had been given to Commo- New Jersey. Both the silk and cloth jobbers are thus busy. all the adjoining houses, and packed the streets, darkened in a clear voice made another; confession. He evidently and the Baroness de Speth, dined with her Majesty this tions of your oppressors, and to express a fervent hope that you may yet be spared to restore your beloved Hungary to The Queen's private band was in attendance after din- that position among the nations of Europe, from which she has been so basely dislodged by Cossack hordes and violated Austrian faith. In these times of rampant and blind ... Meyerbeer | reaction on continental Europe, it is clearly the duty of all friends of constitutional and rational freedom (of which your brilliant career in Hungary proves you to be a devoted supporter), to hold out the hand of fellowship to all mar-The Queen and Prince Albert walked in the Home Park tyrs of liberty like yourself, and prove to both autocrat and kaiser, that though their armies may, in the east, suppress The Prince of Wales, the Princess Royal, and the public opinion and enslave the press, there is still a voice younger members of the royal family also walked in the in the west potent enough to confound their doings, and shield from calumny and attack the victims of their op-Her Majesty, Prince Albert, the ladies and gentlemen of pression. It is thus that the two great branches of the the court, and the domestic household, attended Divine Anglo-Saxon race bid you welcome to their shores, a feeling we are sure responded to by the great French people, so unworthily represented by that government which drove: you from its shores. Rest assured, sir, that in the hands The Queen, will hold a Privy Council on Thursday next, and hearts of the millions of the natives that produced a them to confront the stormy sea of human beings spread painful affliction which his dishonourable end would inflict the 23rd inst., at Windsor Castle. Summonses were issued Washington, a Hampden, and a Wallace, and who have learned deeply from experience to cherish the principles.

of constitutional freedom, the cause of your country, and to the beam's end. Buth were executed at one and the prepared to meet his fate. The fatal noose was adjusted, The Belgian minister had an interview with the struggling nationalities of Europe is safe from the nity of paying tribute to your high genius, patriotism, Mr. H. Gordon, Chairman of the Oriental Bank Corpora- martial courage, and administrative ability, while chief yeneration we entertain towards your person, and the great: Lieut.-Colonel Reid-had an interview with Earl Grey, cause of which you are the honoured representative.—. on Saturday, at the Colonial office, and had also an inter- (Signed on behalf of the meeting), JAMES TURNER, Chair-"TO LOUIS KOSSUTH; LATE GOVERNOR OF HUNGARY.

"The mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of Bradford; Despatches from the Governor of New South Wales were I (Yorkshire), in council assembled, hail with great delight your deliverance from the unjustifiable captivity you have Despatches for the Governors of Ceylon and Hong Kong | so long endured, and welcome you to the shores of this our were sent off on Saturday evening from the Colonial-office. free and happy country. Though your noble efforts to maintain the constitution and right, of Hungary have been THE STAY OF THE COURT AT WINDSOR will be for overborne by despotic power, you have secured for yourself: about a month, when her Majesty will pay a short visit to and your country an enduring and an honourable name, Osborne, after which, the Queen and the royal family dom. Our best wishes and prayers attend you and your longer groaning under the hoof of despotism, but rejoicing in a renovated and free constitution.

Swaminaden Ederemanesingam is appointed a Member of The corporate common seal of the borough of Bradford the Legislative Council of Ceylon, in the absence of Mr. | was bereunto affixed at a meeting of the council of the said Armitage: Mr. Joseph Hensley is appointed Solicitor | borough on Tuesday, the 14th day of October, 1851, by General for Prince Edward's Island. Mr. A. W. Anderson | order of the said council, in the presence of W. Hudson, "TO LOUIS KOSSUTH, PRESIDENT OF HUNGARY. "Sir,—We, the undersigned, resident in the city of Bath, Stafford Henry Northcote, Bart., Captain Hay (Commis-) friends of constitutional freedom and social order, are desioner of Police), Henry Cole, Esq., and Dr. Lyon Playfair, sirons, in common with our countrymen at large, to offer are appointed Companions of the same order. Mr. Paxton, you our hearty congratulations on your deliverance from captivity... Upon this occasion we would refrain from all ainful reminiscences and even from past animadversions on violated faith; but we necessarily must contrast the vain The public will be glad to learn that the Rev. R. insensate fury of your vindictive persecutors with the Vhiston, master of the Cathedral Grammar-school of calm and upright demeanour of the potentate in whose do-Rochester, has, notwithstanding his gravius delictum minions you sought refuge. Whether it be your determiagainst the deam and chapter of that church, been elected nation, sir, to remain in England, or to reside among the true Englishmen of another continent, once exiles like yourself, our admiration of your wisdom and beneficence, your firmness, and integrity, our wishes for your peace and prosperity will attend you. (Here follow a long list of signatures, headed by the hondured name of Walter Savage Landor, the distinguished writer and poet.") The Mayor of Southampton has also received an address for presentation to Kossuth from Stepney. NEWCASTLE.—As soon as the arrival of the illustrious Magyar at Southampton is known, a public meeting is to be held in Newcastle to bid him welcome to England, and to invite him to visit that district.

THE "BLOOMERS" IN AMERICA.—Our New York correspondent says: "We have had a great effort made it has chiefly been made by a class of free-thinking women, not occupying any very remarkable position in society, but who seem determined to become objects of curiosity.

"UNITED STATES." Daily News, 20 Oct. 1851. British Library Newspapers, https://link.gale.com/apps/doc/BA3202865140/BNCN?u=bayreuth&sid=BNCN&xid=96d98167. Accessed 15 Oct. 2020.