

Friday May 8/47

I must just write a few lines in answer to yr. note - to beg of you to take matters easily - I think you are disposed so to do, for the present - but just keep this by you - for use these books once or when you may begin to feel rest wearying to be being laid up for a while seems very like perfect happiness.
Not to you, it must be flagging.
With all your superabundant

These artists: but written
Friday, May
Prison
I have
I have
Money
Don't
As on the night of

has appeared at the

I paid 8.
go for my
Wall - the
I must had
2 or 4 boxes
etc etc -
the duties
of scan die
tractable:
the points
are for many activity: I don't spoil a perfect recovery, by moving hand, or foot or eyelash. As you have the fullest warrant from yr. doctor & yourself. - Meanwhile, in other respects you will be all the better for a pause. - You will have time together, & had, to imagine, which is hardly possible to one who lives on the railroad: as you have done of late. As regards don't do

profess
there is
Go to the
delusio
had an
Whose
fate of
My sister
Hanging
but she
I hope

the worst
don't know
of it
the doctor
in other
letters
will have
regret
gone
L. A.
L. A.

London & its environs. the loss of professionally, nothing. - What a pity there is, what audacious there are.
So to the press, or have been to them delicious "Eligah". - I have not yet had an evening for Mr. Butler.
Whose appearance has shared the fate of all things at this busy time.
My sister saw her two nights since - Playing to but a meagre audience, but she is well & has a wonderful hope to go for my self & brother.

Yours truly
Henry D. Clarke

CHORLEY, H.

As they very kind & generous about me - I only wish they were as true as you were them: however to be so thought of by one or two persons keeps me alive & upright in the middle of vexation & anxiety, so to sink many a stronger person.
Perhaps good days may come for you me, - I shall be rejoiced to see you: but let us conceal days as there are many things I wish