

Sunday.

My dearest Charlotte - I was very glad to get your note & see of how you were once more - I am very anxious to see how Hydropathy suits you - it is no use saying any thing now but still I hope you had good Medical sanction before you ventured to on it - I wish you had been more specific in account of yourself. is it of back you are suffering from? Has that affection of the Kidneys subsided?
 My dear child do persuade somebody for a general sense of good nature I write you a few lines

I cannot get a place in the like writing a different address
 if I had things still how got out
 you & I
 of 1st.

minutes 1st. was
 of chatter faster than ever - went to the Princess Theatre one night in London saw Macready
 in "Kean" but the play
 made me very poorly

of particulars concerning your present state & also how you get on with the cold water. (I shall be here for some time longer) they cannot be too minute - if any old nurse w^d. write Robt stand a chance of hearing more than any A - A clever person w^d. think of saying - I have it!
Give my best regards to your Sally & tell her I write her a letter all about you & nothing else in future.
I am very glad that

This heat is come in such a miserable guise but it will be the means of saving your life - you were going on too fast. Now when you are once more set on your feet again you will have gained more power than if you had never been laid low - The patient my dear child I do not chafe & fret you this heat that forced on you will be a quarry out if you will get many precious secrets - I sh^d. like to see you - I have not promise but if I can any way contrive for five

lack a plan I sh^d. like
in a different addressing
if I had
things still
how got out
of sed.
for five minutes sh^d. warm

up & chatter faster than ever - I went to the Princess Theater one night in

home by you - I am very tired
before you came up -

I am living here a most quiet life - I came on a visit to my old Schoolmistress who has always been a very kind friend to me - She has been obliged to go to Cheltenham on business & has left me the house for her - only so long I have to go to Church twice every Sunday being at the rectory & a whole farm yard full of livestock It is a most primitive country & the people understand nothing but

Pragmatism! I cannot believe in such a place as London whilst here & I ~~think~~ it is like writing to a person in a different state of existence - addressing you! I feel as if I had a whole heap of things I tell you that somehow got out of hearing of you & I not write them if I only see you for five minutes I should want

before you came up -

Schoolmaster
been a very Dne - She has Dgo & Chell
business the house for
I have Dgo
long Sunday Meeting for y and full
It is a nice country & the
habitation

indeed - I do not stand such petty business I do not have killed the man like a gentleman!
I thought of you a great deal more than of him Whilst I was in the walls I cannot tell you the Queen feelings I had then it seemed as if I were brought to you & that you ought to have come on - Did I tell you I went to your dinner at his house & met many kind & easy boys etc in London in fact I had my nice

times of it - I am working but that cursed book does not there is a deal more Dgo than I thought to mend the matter
my eyes are so bad that I literally cannot see to do any thing by candlelight I am finishing this letter & have not written five minutes yet
I hardly know what I do - I can only just see the paper

home by you - I am very kind

one - the Dp & Ch
house for
I have Dp long land
rectory
y and full
It is a most

no date

So good bye I will write again soon
But make Sally write
I give my kind regards
When God bless you my dear & believe me ever yr affectionate
