

Bridgeton N. J. Monday.
West Commerce St May 29. /64.

My dear here is Daniels' ineffably conceited letter - I read it as "pur" agreement - The church bells are ringing & the elect are going to church - I have been taking tea with Sarah Nixon I ran over after lessons & after paying a call on the "soldiers"
sister my neighbor Mrs Gen
Thorne (whose brother by the way
I invited through her to come to see

Letters to Mary Howell

20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45
46
47
48
49
50
51
52
53
54
55
56
57
58
59
60
61
62
63
64
65
66
67
68
69
70
71
72
73
74
75
76
77
78
79
80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100

me) - I gave your regrets to Sarah she was just going in to tea & took me in forcibly - Strawberries & cream, grass butter &c: - I saw the bride elect and had a cosy visit & pleasant chat.

Mollie Bowen plays the "Ki-=cordati" marvellously well - &
The Sonata & Funeral March has improved more than I can tell you
I gave three lessons this after=noon have written a note to

My gas affinity and am now enclosing you yours from your musical affinity - About ten Frank will pop in we shall talk you & Mr R - over tenderly com=fort each other & then part

I had a nice long good letter from Charlotte Cushman to day unaffected and natural I will bring it up when I come

Give my love to the girls
I shall have to be in town next Monday if at all possible - You shall hear from me however again before I come - Give my regards to Mr Peapit - I shall fetch his grasses & fairys

lances with me - Tell him
I set the tea table in a roas to night describing the scene of yesterday with Mr Nichols, Ton
-ton & the murdered chicken
I am very glad it occurred for it gives me a droll story to a-muse my visitors with

Write soon and love always your

Anne Brewster