

New Brighton April 12th - 1850

Dear Mr. White -

Your letter of March 16th enclosing a draft for $25 has but just come to hand. - It was so long on the way, that fearing that my package had failed to reach you, and so wrote you a few days since.

I certainly shall not fail to let you know when I am in Boston, as you so kindly request. I shall be pleased to know you. - I also desire greatly to meet with your sister and her husband - for aside from the curiosity to see distinguished people, of which I suppose, I have my share, I have been more deeply interested in them by the representations of some common friends, both in Boston and Philadelphia. -

Respectfully and sincerely
I am J. Clarke