Dear friend

How to see Miss Worsam off. I have the opportunity of sending you on little errand of putting - first & foremost to convey Emma's & my kind love & remembrance to you. second to tell you that Emma Cushman is doing very well - going on towards her confinement very satisfactorily. I have talked a hour at Bowdoin & Manchester for two months. until the end of the term, we have been for a month at Harv.

-sate & derive much benefit from the fine pure clear air. Emma Stebbins had been dreadfully pulled down from the last 18 months in Italy. but I hope from the long rest she will have now that she will be better & stronger.

I wish to do some mountain exp. above the main station - but have heard nothing - at this rate of exchange it would be madness to bring the money over to pay Müller. The money which I am placed with Col Stebbins towards paying for the station.

I see Genl Hamilton & Mrs Brewster have now took out. will you send me back any thing new by Waterhouse when she comes back early in Nov.

Give my kind regards to every body who cares for me - & Emma Stebbins also. when is home. I know she is what she doing. In numerous the way of her sweet writing. I hope she will then should be much - I ought to see it - ought I not?

Emma Fishman left an order with Mr Deane for a copy of Mrs Pomroy's Book of God (all the volumes) to be sent - with Thompson - also sent God to Miss Fanny Seward Care of F. W. Seward Assistant Secretary of State Washington.

I hear they have now come to hand will you look after this. I can indorse & charge to me. Send me a Boston paper when you have a chance without trouble to yourself direct to me until 5th of October at Rose Hill. Bowden. N. Manchester after that - to my brother

Dr. J. J. J. J. J.

Law Fire Insurance Office

Chancery Lane

London -

for all October -

after that. Rome -

I may have an opportunity of writing to you again later - in the summer of the country. This must be to ensure the carrying out of my wish with regard to the book for Fanny Seward

Good bye - dear love to Annie from all of us. Adieu
