Dear thousand Thanks

Dear good thoughtful Soul for sending me the two books for my self & the one for Emma - for so I interpreted the 2 copies of the dear little "Gates, Ajar" - what a lovely little book - how gracefully & tenderly written, & how much it shows us inside & outside the gate!

My brother's address is - 114 Chancery Lane. Law Fire Insurance Office Tomber knows - by the by - did you ask Tomber to send me the copies of Maier's <sup>articles</sup> if he finds them? don't forget for I want them much - if he can't find them - won't you get somebody coming over from America to put a couple or 4 of them among his things & bring them in. They won't take any notice in a passenger bag - Good by. dear as love to them - Kind regards to Mary & all - I hope you admire the speech of "Story" - "I have no voice - <sup>my tongue</sup> is in my sword!" By your <sup>the same</sup> pervious self-satisfaction - Talker off my feet. Nothing ought to be

Dear Madam & Thanks

Dear madam I beg to thank you for sending me the two books for my deck - I have not for some time been so happy to receive the 2 copies of the new little books you - which a long little book - how I greatly enjoyed it, & how much pleasure in their history the fact.
