Dear friend -

I here send you my letters, treating upon the books you were so kind as to send me - and one other,
which I thought might
amuse you somewhat.

You must tell me
what Holms says of my notice of him - if he says anything - I can scarcely hope that it will give him
much pleasure, so

"Revered up" in praise and popularity as he is - so smothered with laurels. - I heard from Giles a short time since - and I hope he is now flourishing.

How are you? and
how is Whipple?

I wrote you a mad sort of a letter a while ago - do excuse it. - I was in a strange mood
where is Disc. biscaiaiti?
I would love to know,
as I want to write to her.

Please remember me
most kindly to Mr.

Giles and also to Mr.
Whipple. -

I trust that you got
well over that illness, and are now entirely well Adieu - Ever sincerely yours.

Grace Greenwood.
