

Amoy;

Dear Mr Combs.

A thousand thanks for your kind & welcome note of yesterday. I was in much trouble about what you had written to me. This has in a great measure relieved me.

I have very nearly finished reading the articles in the journal I hesitate to take them away for the little that remains unread.
But some purchase should come to them. I shall be able to get them in some London library. when I shall have some time to peruse them carefully In the mean time. pray accept my most earnest thanks for your kindness.

A "press of business" as the commercial people say. has prevented my having the pleasure of calling upon you. but I hope upon again visiting Edinburgh.
 to be able to see much more of you. Pray commend me most Kindly to Mrs Combe. & with my sister's best regards.

I remain Mr. Dean Th Combe
 Your most faithfully
 Mrs Charlotte Freshman

53 Princes St
 Edinburgh

Edinburgh 23^d Nov
1845

Miss Cushman
Articles in Journal

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]