Dear Mr. Fields -

I should have written to you some days ago to acknowledge your favor, but that I have been looking for a package of papers by every post. Why does it not come?

Did you receive the two packages I sent - one by express, one
by mail? -

Please ask Mr.
Belknap to let me know if he can get

The little French story - looks for me!

Your poem is very sweet and we thank you for it - but really we cannot afford to lose the compliment and advantage of your name.

We have presumed to give it, and the date of the writing and the poem will occupy the place d'hoisneur in our December No.

By the way, how do you like the

Ah Edith that girl has great genius. I wish you could see a few of the best of her things.

You never have
