

[1860]

[Rome]

Cushman, Charlotte [Saunders]

To [James Thomas Fields and Annie (Adams) Fields]

A.L.S. 2 p. 8 vo.

38 Via Gregoriana, I°

Monday night

What shall I say to you?
Emma has been completely prostrated all the day with this miserable face or tooth ache. She can scarcely hold up her head so that I am afraid to promise you to go to Albano tomorrow. Doubtless our dear appointment will be longer with your plans. It seems too hard that the one thing she has cared to do this spring is the way of an excursion should be so cruelly & painfully interfered with. - we could not have a greater disappointment. What will you do? - will you go to Om Stearns tomorrow night. if so, come on a little earlier & look upon us -

The doctor has done something for Emma & it may be that she will be better tomorrow. if so we might go on Thursday - but you must do just what you can do but do not mind us Houston from tooth to tooth Ever your attached
M. W. C. Fisher