come to some tangible decision or enable you begin to work for our journal. Don't think on me or intrusion. I don't know exactly how to ask you.
Therefore have spoken out plainly. Trusting to your belief in my wish not to offend you. But hereafter don't give I.O.U.'s. I have you told in such uncertain positions lead to me when you want more.
I have asked you to do this before & am willing & able.

Dear Miss Nuttyard.
Please don't forget to remember. I have a bill for you to get from Mr South. The infor-mation I asked of you, as to the usual payments for the different writers according to their positions & the articles they write. Any information you may be able to obtain for me I shall be quite confidential upon. & very thankful to you for. I am going out of town friends. Robert's strap. that I was only waiting to learn your address, which Miss Hays had promised to get for me to write to you. So you see there was a sort of destiny in our knowing each other. but I am very happy in the medium.

Thank you very much for your kind note. May I hope to hear from you at your leisure. I shall remain ever until the 29th. Believe me ever most faithfully yours on Monday morning. Will you come & see me on Tuesday to lunch with me? In the afternoon we will go together if you please to see the works in the new home. Can you make this convenient?

Lizzie Lynn has returned from Paris. My brother called on her this morning.

Pardon my reminding you of this information which I wish to obtain. I believe me with every feeling of respect & esteem Ever faithfully

I mention ^{only} as a subject for leisure which cannot be better employed.

I am very thankful to Lizzie Lynn for affording me an opportunity of knowing you. It is not the heart of her kind wishes.
Bless her. She has indeed a noble & affectionate nature. I will trust all you say of her. I meeting as we do upon such an introduction as she has afforded us. it will be hard indeed if we cannot be
