pages will the matter make?

I am sadly troubled about the missing part I think you will have to correct it yet.

Dear Mr. Fields -

Your note of Sept 20th reached me yesterday morning - but the proofs have not yet come to hand. Never again send by Express - always send by mail. I will return them as soon as possible when they do come. I want to read them - but you must do as you think best about waiting for them. - I shall be in Philadelphia by the 20th, at the latest, and shall remain there indefinitely. - My wedding is fixed for the 14th. - I feel very dear friend that it will seem like a nice form, an invitation to you and Mr. Fickner

interesting and momentous occasion I so utterly hopeless am I of your being able to come - Yet I do invite you, in the name of all my home loveds - in my Grandmother's classic and agateic name, but most and heartiest
of all, in my own name I speak but simple truth when I say that your presence would greatly deepen our happiness even on that Evening

If I had been married at Anna's, as I hoped to be until after my illness, you would have been with
us. - But if it were possible I am sure you would willingly come as it is. -

Anna Phillips writes that she has the corner of which you wrote.

Give my dear love to Mr.
Dicknor when he arrives.
Remember me kindly to all my Boston friends, and believe me ever cordially and faithfully yours
Grace

Dear Mr. Fields - I missed the post yesterday. Still no appearance of the large package of proof sent by express - I have sent to Athensburg to enquire, but can get no tidings. I fear it is lost - I return a smaller package inward today by mail - What does it mean that there seems no title but "A tour in Europe"? - "The Haps and Knishaps" must be given of
