

Monday 19 July 1861

The pilot came in in five minutes & I sent this on word of love to my poor darling. I read the papers on board the steamer & then the lot inwardly & outwardly that my darling had been so promptly sent. I am blessed in my daughter. Thank you dear one - I have been so busy this morning that I only opened your letter to see if the papers were much toward finding a telegraph enclosed I see that Mary is with you & am so glad. Now you will be you to get a little rest before you I may start for Luroy. Your father is in and the best of father of men - ah I am so glad you are now hurrying off to Tualoza - I am sure but love to you - So don't forget the New Firmans. Florence and a bit - but is getting on fairly The end, dear love to the father & mother

Aunt Sarah sends dear love my Liverpool address is Knolly Cross. Gateacre near Liverpool. for three weeks - then to much charity - I love your own darling life - down and into the cube of my heart my soul and all that is true to me - are yours - love me as your faithful friend Aunt Sarah

Grandmother sends her love to you - I wrote to your father last night to you -
