Thursday.

Dear friend,

Will you please send me the slip from the transcript which was contained in Mr Watson's note for Watson who is in great trouble for Child. Though a letter in Friday, dated three days later says the D^r is still alive.

I have a letter from Kate Fuld who is so happy & contented. She sends the London, 15th May 33

Large quantity of love to you both - as does Miss Blayden.
The letter of the latter I must read to you for it is too good to be lost, & too badly written for any but a friend's eye to make out.

When shall we see you?
We are going some Errands this afternoon to get some Iron rosaries - Castellani's.
& after Stow Camio's. What do you say to looking in at The Studio this morning & letting us know something about your movements of the next three days. You see we kind o' consider you as belonging to us.

It is possible that Skatter may leave for Boston on Sunday morning - if so I am afraid that Albano must be left for a day or two later. Ever aff Mrs
C.C.
