Monday July 24

My dear Emma

Your Auntie requests me to write a card for her today - to tell you she is with the nurse for her expectations of yesterday - & hopes as much for you - & that you reached home safely and comfortably. She would have written herself - but she is suffering again, the Dr. having found it necessary to counteract one or two points in her heart again this evening

My dear mother
My dear father
In greater security - This application - though very prompt is trusting in compassion with the other & I hope she will be soon relieved - but it is very hard that after her let up yesterday she should so soon be called upon to suffer this torture again - There is nothing for it however - but endurance & helping her to endure.
I am sorry to have to tell you this renewed applica tion was necessary - we must only hope that the result may be the more humane & effectual she sends you much love & kisses to the children always affly yours

Et.
