Lynn Aug 19th 1842-

Dear Mr. Field -

I have just received your note and will go up to Boston with the "documents" tomorrow morning, if nothing happens to prevent.

I have little or no manuscript, but printed copies. - I hope that the selection and arrangement I shall make may suit your taste.

I will write to the Whittons at once. I have neglected all my correspondents of late.

In respect haste -

Yours
G. G. -
